IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR USERS OF SATELLITE NAVIGATION SYSTEMS

Whilst our SL9 0QJ Royal Mail postcode is correct this will send you about 3/4 mile in the wrong direction. Please use SL9 0QH which will put you in the middle of the site.

Also be warned that, if you follow the directions given by your sat nav from the A40/M40 junction, it will probably send you up a narrow lane passable only by small vehicles.

You are advised not to turn right onto the A412 as requested by your sat nav but continue on the A40 to the A413 turning. On leaving the site it will tell you to turn right and again we advise that you should turn left and take the 2nd left turning, Joiners Lane, by which time it will have re-calculated your route.

Please see page 2 for more detailed travel instructions
