

Games

The participants (in pairs) should make a circle : one behind the back of another without holding each other's hands.

The Leader should be also on the line of the circle, but has no pair.

The Leader is to wink at those who are in the inner circle. The one catching the Leader's glance should take the unoccupied place behind the Leader's back, but their partners should stop them from doing it by catching them by their hand for it !

Others should follow the Leader's eyes so that they retain their partners. Those that fail to do so will have to leave the game.

Play the game for as long as you wish.
